

Building Connections: Trails, “Playborhoods” & Safe Routes

Free!

Friday, January 30, 2015, 12:30 pm - 7 pm
Sequoia Middle School, Redding

Bryan Jones

Keynote: Bryan Jones, Engineer & Transportation Planner at Alta Planning + Design will share practical tools and cost effective strategies for creating a more livable community through active transportation.

Keynote: Mike Lanza, Father & Author of “Playborhood: Turn Your Neighborhood Into a Place for Play” will talk about creating neighborhood spaces that entice kids to play outdoors.

Mike Lanza

Plus:

- Other great speakers and resources for Safe Routes to School
- Panel discussion with local speakers on trails and connectivity
- Appetizers and networking opportunities

Celebrate! Mingle with the speakers immediately following the conference at 7:00 pm, at Old City Hall. Celebration hosted by Shasta Living Streets (free for conference attendees).

Explore! Outings on Saturday, January 31, will offer a chance to get outdoors, make connections, and continue the discussion about creating well-connected communities.

Register at www.healthyshasta.org or (530) 245-6583

Join us for a session or the entire afternoon. Travel scholarships available.

